

Yukon Sport Organizations invited to apply for Northern LYLES funding support

Northern LYLES invites Yukon sport organizations in good standing with Sport Yukon to apply for funding to support camps and clinics involving Olympians, professional athletes and high-level coaches.

Northern LYLES will provide return airfare from any airport served by Air North, Yukon's Airline, to a maximum of $1,000, for the visiting athlete or coach and up to an additional $1,000 to cover certain camp costs.

Camps supported to date include:

- Cross-country ski camp with three-time U.S. Olympian and head coach of the Canadian World Cup cross country ski team, Justin Wadworth
- Cycling camp with Canadian Olympian Denise Ramsden
- Physical literacy camp with Canadian Olympic medalist Tom Hall
- Basketball camp with Olympian Greg Francis and elite coach Dawn Smyth

Visit <http://sportyukon.com/programs/zach-emily-rural-youth-sport-development-program/> for more information.