2018/2019 Kids Recreation Fund Guidelines

The Kids Recreation Fund provides Yukon families with a lower income an opportunity to apply for funding for their children to participate in sport and recreational activities within the Yukon Territory.

To be eligible, we must assess three things: your family net income level, your family/marital status (to determine total family income), and proof of Yukon residency. A tax return income statement or tax summary, Notice of Assessment, Child Tax Benefit Notice, social assistance budget notice, and/or other documents can be used to assess most requirements. Please read our guidelines and restrictions before applying to determine specific funding requirements and to ensure that the activity or equipment you are applying for is eligible.

Who is eligible to apply?

Children and youth, aged 0 to 18, who are residents of the Yukon, and whose family combined household net income is under:

- $42,200 with 1 child
- $48,350 with 2 children
- $54,600 with 3 children
- $60,100 with 4 or more children

What can be funded through the KRF?

The KRF helps cover the cost of sport and recreational registration fees including camps, memberships and lessons, supplies, and sport- specific equipment (see the next page for a list of eligible equipment).

A maximum of up to $400 per child can be accessed but is NOT guaranteed. The funds can be requested when NEEDED from the KRF during the current fiscal year April 9, 2018-March 22, 2019 ONLY. Funds are limited and can be applied for as long as they are available. Please note that quotes and receipts from Walmart will not be accepted.

Please see the next page for a list of equipment that can and cannot be funded.

When is the deadline to apply?

Applications will be accepted from April 9th, 2018 until March 22nd, 2019. After March 22nd, no applications will be accepted.

What is the processing time?

Applications require up to 14 days to process from the time all the correct information is submitted. Applicants will be notified by phone or email once their application has been processed.

How to apply:

1. For equipment: get quotes from the local store(s) you are seeking equipment from or, if you purchase the equipment yourself, bring in the original receipt (no older than 3 months from date of application). Online purchases must be paid for at time of the order and may be reimbursed with a receipt. Make sure the equipment you are seeking is on the list of eligible equipment for funding.

For programs: if you can, apply for program first. Bring proof of registration (receipt or proof of enrollment in program, camp, sport, etc.) or an info sheet about the activity that shows its price (blank registration form, brochure, etc.).

2. Fill out a separate KRF application form for each child you are applying for.
3. **Once per fiscal year - Provide proof of eligibility (income, marital, and residency) for the KRF as listed on the application form.

Examples of proof of income: Revenue Canada Notice of Assessment, Yukon Child Care Benefit Statement

Examples of proof of marital: tax return summary showing marital status; T1 General Form; a letter from your landlord, employer, social/support work, lawyer, accountant, or tax preparer validating your marital status.
