

The Kids Recreation Fund provides lower income Yukon families an opportunity to apply for funding for their children to participate in sport and recreational activities within the Yukon.

Who is eligible to apply?

Children aged 0 to 18 (born in 2003), who are residents of the Yukon, and whose combined household net income is under:

- $46,818 with 1 child
- $54,100 with 2 children
- $60,343 with 3 children
- $66,585 with 4 or more children

How much is funded?

A maximum of up to $600 per child can be accessed but is NOT guaranteed. Funds are limited and can be applied for as long as they are available within the fiscal year, ending March 31.

When is the deadline to apply?

March 31, 2024, or when funds are available. We strongly encourage you to apply early!

How to apply:

Step 1: a) Creating a profile and program approval

Applicants will need to provide family information and the required documents in order for the KRF Administrator to verify eligibility for funding.

b) Required Documents

1. Revenue Canada 2022 Notice of Assessment or recent Social Assistance Budget Sheet AND
2. Most recent Canada Child Benefit Statement (issued on July 20th of every year).

Step 2: Applying for funding

If approved, the applicant will receive an email redirecting them back to the website to apply for funding.

For CGC: For passes and memberships at the Canada Games Center, select the desired item as presented on the applications or upload a detailed receipt.

For programs: Proof of registration (receipt or proof of enrollment in program, camp, sport, etc.) or an info sheet about the activity that shows the cost of the program-(blank registration form, brochure, etc.) is required.

For equipment: Get quotes from the local store(s) you are seeking equipment from or, if you purchase the equipment yourself, upload a receipt (no older than 3 months from date of application). Make sure the equipment you are seeking is on the list of eligible equipment for funding. Quotes are accepted from: Sports Experts/Coast Mtn, Due North Maternity & Baby, Changing Gear, Cadence Cycle, Kicksled Revolution, Icycle Sports, and Mt. Sima.
